Dear Prospective Exhibitor:

This year promises to be an exciting one as we gear up for the Florida Linux Show 2009, Jacksonville, Florida's Premier Technology Event. We are delighted to invite your organization to become an exhibitor at the conference and trade show, which is scheduled for March 9th, 2009, beginning at 8:00 AM at the beautiful University Center at the University of North Florida, in Jacksonville, Florida. Last year's show was well attended and hailed as simply "Awesome, Awesome, Awesome!"

Additionally, the University Center has extended its hospitality to include complimentary free self-parking and WIFI for all conference exhibitors, speakers, and attendees.

The 2008 conference will feature one day of outstanding educational sessions, exciting plenary speakers, and exhibits offering a wide variety of topics and products. In addition to these exciting features, state and national experts have been invited as keynote and plenary speakers to discuss topics such as, Making Money with Open Source and Linux Software, Migrating to Your Enterprise Systems, and much more.

This is an opportunity to market your products and services to hundreds of potential customers. The Jacksonville area is home to the US Navy Port of Jacksonville. Also, over 1,000,000 residents call Jacksonville their home in the largest US City (per squares miles) in the country. Jacksonville is a growing city with a huge technology infrastructure and 25 major companies have made the First Coast (Jacksonville, Florida) their headquarters.

Along with numerous business opportunities there will be a number of other services, such as, onsite Linux Professional Institute Certification, Linux and Open Source Software Demonstrations, and general software operations for some of the most popular Open Source software products. Additionally, computers and accessories will be available for purchase from local area vendors.

Please review the enclosed information and let us know if you are interested in exhibiting. Exhibitor opportunities are available on a first-come, first-served basis, and space is limited. Exhibitor reservations must be received by February 14th. Discounts are available for early exhibitor registration.

Sincerely,
